MUALLIMA SHAKIRAH HUNTER

Muallima Shakirah Hunter
Founder & Lead Educator, Umm Abbad Academy

Muallima Shakirah Hunter is the founder and lead educator of Umm Abbad Academy (UAA), an Islamic educational institution based on the core connection to the kalaam of Almighty Allah. She currently resides in Madinah, and UAA's classes are conducted online, making her teaching accessible to students across South Africa and beyond.

Under her leadership, UAA has grown to encompass several departments – including Aalimiya, Hifz, Reboot, and Tafseer and Tadabbur – offering structured pathways in Islamic scholarship for students at different stages of their learning journey. At the heart of her approach is a core mindframe of Tadabbur – reflective contemplation of the Qur'an – fostering a living, applied connection to the Book rather than mere recitation or study.

Muallima Shakirah teaches the Aalimiya (Islamic scholarship) course and leads the Reboot Your Maktab programme, alongside her work with Arabic Adventures Academy. She is also the voice behind Hayatan Tayyiba, a programme on Radio Islam International, through which she brings Islamic guidance to a wider community audience. She has authored Qarrbni Ilaika Ya Qur'ani – "Bring me closer to you oh my Qur'an".

Her scholarly interests span Islamic jurisprudence, Quranic sciences, and the methodology of classical Islamic scholarship. Fluent in both English and Arabic, she is known for grounding her teaching in classical sources – Qur'an and hadith with full referencing – while making that knowledge practically accessible to a female Muslim audience.
